

Attorney-at-Law

The successful candidate must possess a Bachelor of Laws degree (LLB) and must be a residing Attorney-at-Law in Guyana with at least five (5) years' experience in Environmental law, in particular, environmental procedures and regulations as well as familiarity with oil and gas legislation in Guyana.

- A Master of Laws Degree with specialization in Environmental law will be an asset.